Your enrolment is not governed by the ESOS Act 2000 or the National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018, as you have not enrolled under a Student Visa (Subclass 500). Accordingly, ESOS protections and PRISMS reporting obligations do not apply. Instead, Aura Education's Verification of Enrolment (VoE) Policy will be applied.

Enrolment Form

- A Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) will not be issued for your enrolment.
- If offered, your enrolment does not make you eligible for applying for a student visa application or an extension.
- It is your responsibility to ensure that your current visa permits you to study in Australia and remains valid for the duration of the course, and Aura Education, as the provider, will not be responsible for monitoring your visa expiry or securing visa extensions.
- If your visa expires before the completion of your enrolled course, Aura Education is not obligated to defer, suspend, or extend the enrolment without a valid visa permitting continued study.
- If you change your visa status to a Student Visa (Subclass 500) during enrolment, a new written agreement is required, and CRICOS conditions will be applied.
- Refunds for your enrolment are governed by Aura Education's VoE Policy & the Refund policy; thus, the ESOS tuition protection arrangements will not be followed.
- You must be aware that your enrolment will not be reported in PRISMS; accordingly, it does not form part of a CRICOS enrolment.

Health/Disability:
(Before completing this section, please refer to the Disability Supplementary information below).
Hearing/Deaf Hearing impairment is used to refer to a person who has an acquired mild, moderate, severe or profound hearing loss after learning to speak, communicates orally and maximises residual hearing with the assistance of amplification. A person who is deaf has severe or profound hearing loss from birth or at or near birth and mainly relies on vision to communicate, whether through lip reading, gestures, cued speech, finger spelling, and/or sign language.

Physical

A physical disability affects a person's mobility or dexterity and may include a total or partial loss of a body part. A physical disability may have existed since birth or may be the result of an accident, illness, or injury suffered later in life; for example, amputation, arthritis, cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, paraplegia, quadriplegia or post- polio syndrome.

Intellectual

In general, the term 'intellectual disability' is used to refer to low general intellectual functioning and difficulties in adaptive behavior, both of which conditions were manifested before the person reached the age of 18. It may result from infection before or after birth, trauma during birth, or illness.

Learning

A general term that refers to a heterogeneous group of disorders manifested by significant difficulties in the acquisition and use of listening, speaking, reading, writing, reasoning, or mathematical abilities. These disorders are intrinsic to the individual, presumed to result from central nervous system dysfunction, and may occur across the lifespan. Problems in self-regulatory behaviours, social perception, and social interaction may occur with learning disabilities, but do not, by themselves, constitute a learning disability.

Mental illness

Mental illness refers to a cluster of psychological and physiological symptoms that cause a person to suffer or experience distress and which represent a departure from a person's usual pattern and level of functioning.

Acquired brain impairment

Acquired brain impairment is an injury to the brain that results in deterioration in cognitive, physical, emotional or independent functioning. Acquired brain impairment can occur as a result of trauma, hypoxia, infection, Tumours, accidents, violence, substance abuse, degenerative neurological diseases or stroke. These impairments may be either temporary or permanent and cause partial or total disability or psychosocial maladjustment.

Vision

This covers a partial loss of sight, causing difficulties in seeing, up to and including blindness. This may be present from birth or acquired as a result of disease, illness or injury.

Medical condition

A medical condition is a temporary or permanent condition that may be hereditary, genetically acquired or of unknown origin. The condition may not be obvious or readily identifiable, yet may be mildly or severely debilitating and result in fluctuating levels of wellness and sickness, and/or periods of hospitalisation; for example, HIV/AIDS, cancer, chronic fatigue syndrome, cystic fibrosis, asthma or diabetes.

Other

A disability, impairment or long-term condition that is not suitably described by one or several disability types in combination. Autism spectrum disorders are reported under this category.

Do you consider yourself to have a disability, impairment or long-term condition?
